

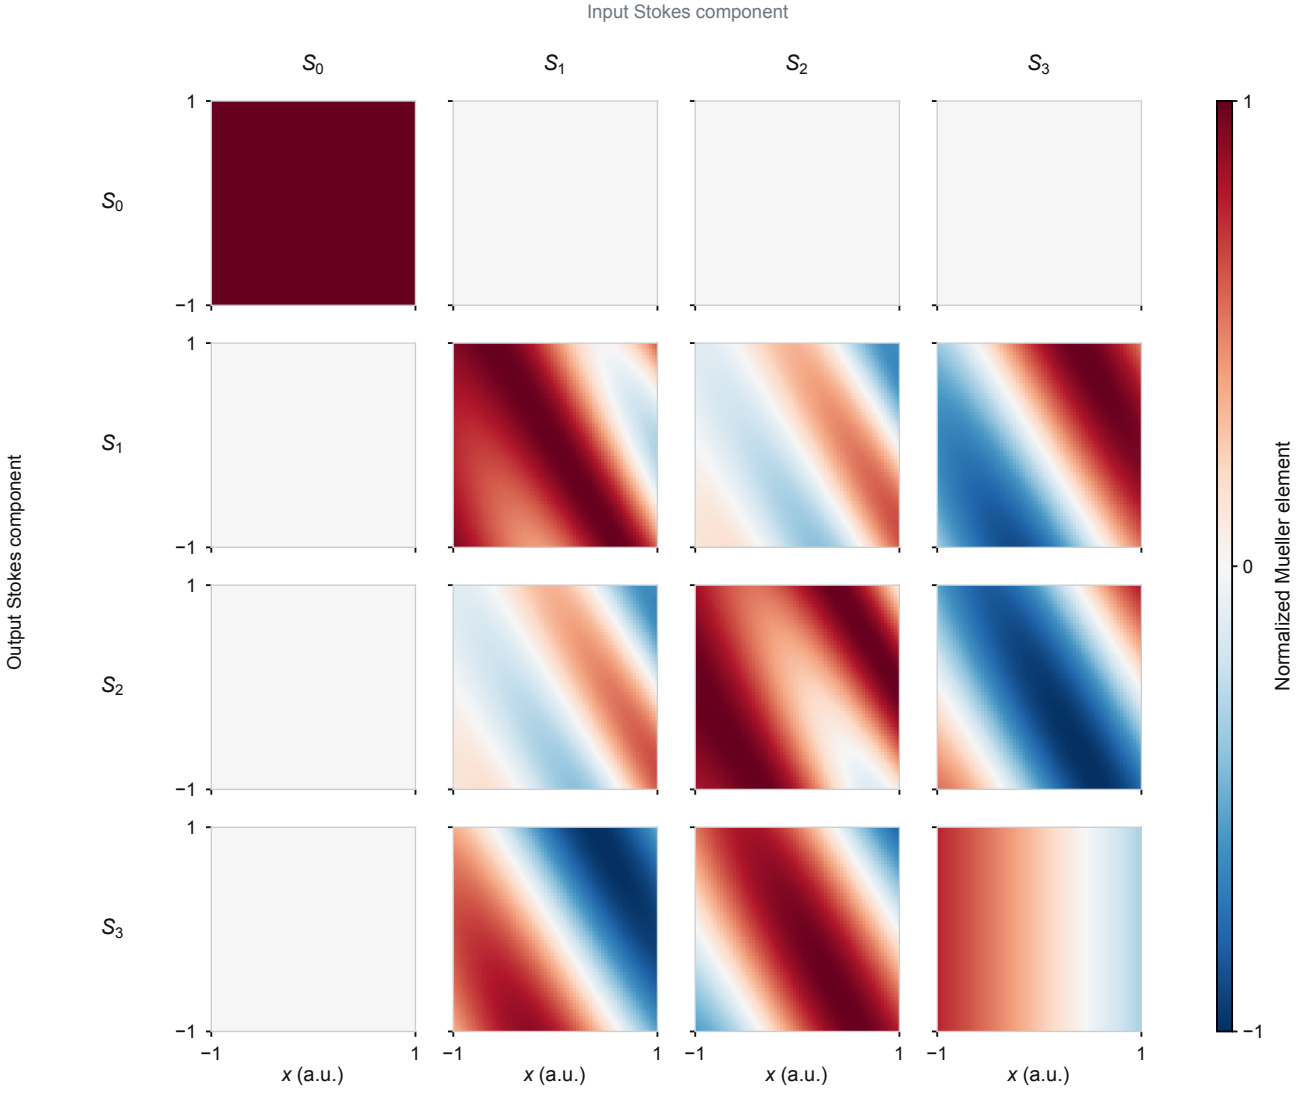

Fig. 6. Synthetic normalized Mueller matrix for a spatially varying ideal retarder. Rows and columns index output and input Stokes components, respectively. Every tile spans x, y = −1 to 1 in arbitrary spatial units and shares the same −1 to 1 colour scale. The 3 × 3 polarization block is an orthogonal Stokes-space rotation; these are analytic data, not measurements.